- 10.1. If a party is prevented in whole or in part from carrying out its obligations under these Terms as a result of Force Majeure, it will promptly notify the other party accordingly. The notice must:
 - 10.1.1. specify the obligations and the extent to which it cannot perform those obligations;
 - 10.1.2. fully describe the event of Force Majeure;
 - 10.1.3. estimate the time during which the Force Majeure will continue; and
 - 10.1.4. specify the measures proposed to be adopted to remedy or abate the Force Majeure.
- 10.2. Following a notice of Force Majeure in accordance with clause 10.1 and while the Force Majeure continues, the obligations which cannot be performed because of the Force Majeure will be suspended, other than obligations to pay money that is due and payable.
- 10.3. The party that is prevented from carrying out its obligations under these Terms as a result of Force Majeure must remedy the Force Majeure to the extent reasonably practicable and resume performance of its obligations as soon as reasonably possible.
- 10.4. The party that is prevented from carrying out its obligations under these Terms as a result of Force Majeure must take all action reasonably practicable to mitigate any loss suffered by the other party as a result of the party's failure to carry out its obligations under these Terms.
- 10.5. The period of time of these Terms will not be extended by the period of Force Majeure.

11. No Warranties

- 11.1. Notwithstanding anything contained herein the User acknowledges that no representation, warranty or condition, express or implied, is given by the Company about the Services provided by the Company and that the Services provided by the Company comply with the rules, regulations, laws and legislation of the place where the Services are being provided and the Company will not be liable under any circumstance for any claims, losses or damages of any kind whatsoever (including but not limited to any indirect, special or consequential damage or injury to any person, corporation or other entity) by reason of or arising out of the services not complying with such rules, regulations, laws and legislation, or the Organisation not being suitable for the User or if the Organisation reneges on an offer to the User or by reason of or arising out of any inaccuracy, error or omission in the information provided by or to the Company.

- 11.2. Where the Australian Consumer Law and other laws imply conditions or warranties in certain contracts and also give parties to those contracts certain other rights against suppliers of goods and services, to the extent that it is not lawful or possible to exclude them, then such conditions, warranties or other rights shall (but only to the extent required by law) apply to these terms and conditions and all other conditions, warranties or rights which might but for this provision be implied are hereby expressly excluded. Where the law implies any term or warranty into these terms and conditions which cannot be excluded, then the liability of the Company for any breach of such term will be limited in the manner permitted under section 64A of the Australian Consumer Law to either supply of the services again or payment of the cost of having the services supplied again (as the Company may determine).

12. Payment, Delivery, Refunds for Premium Users

12.1. Payment Methods

The Company offers online Credit Card payment for Users wishing to upgrade from the Classic Service to the Premier Service. Payment is in AUD and GST applies to Australian residents. When purchasing through Company's secure payment gateway with a credit card, financial details are passed through a secure server using the latest 128-bit SSL (security sockets layer) encryption technology.

12.2. Delivery

The User will be given access to the Premier Service immediately following confirmation of the successful processing of payment.

12.3. Refund

By law, the Company is not required to provide a refund. But a User can request a refund if a product has a major problem. This is when the product:

- has a problem that would have stopped someone from buying the item if they had known about it
- is unsafe
- is significantly different from the sample or description
- does not do what was said it would, or what was asked for and cannot be easily fixed.

If the problem is not major, the Company will resolve the concerns within a reasonable time. If it is not resolved in a reasonable time a refund can be requested.

13. General

- 13.1. These Terms may be varied by the Company by notice to the User. The User's continued use of the Services or the Website following such notice will be deemed to be acceptance of the Terms as varied.

ISS - SCHROLE ADVANTAGE PTY LTD ACN 626 113 095

- 13.2. The User may not assign these Terms or any of its rights and obligations in whole or in part in these Terms, whether by actual assignment or by operation of law or by providing any information on the Website to any third party. The Company may assign or novate these Terms, in whole or in part, to any entity within the Schrole Group or ISS.
- 13.3. A provision of these Terms may not be waived except in writing and signed by an authorised officer of the Company. No waiver or breach of any provision of these Terms shall constitute a waiver or breach of any other provision.
- 13.4. The relationship between the Company and the User shall be governed and construed in accordance with the laws of Western Australia, Australia and the parties shall submit to that jurisdiction.
- 13.5. If any part of these Terms become void or unenforceable then that part shall be severed to the intent that all parts that are not void or unenforceable shall remain in full force and effect. None of these Terms will merge in or upon the execution of this or any other agreement, document, act, matter or thing and will continue to remain in full force and effect for so long as is necessary to give effect to these Terms.
